Put beauty into your home with

Cavalier Furniture

(HAND RUBBED)

Perfection at small cost

WHEN you put Cavalier Furniture into your home, you are choosing the handiwork of furniture masters who are proud of their work. The Cavalier nameplate is on every piece.

Furniture dealers for fifty-nine years have recognized the unusual quality in Cavalier Furniture. The designs are distinctive and artistically correct. The genuine woods are sound and beautifully grained. The construction warrants generations of service. Every piece is hand rubbed.

Because Cavalier Furniture is so good, hundreds of selected dealers are now selling it in various communities of the United States. The enormous production necessary to supply these dealers keeps the price down to a level which every home can afford.

You need desire nothing better for your home, and you should be satisfied with nothing less.

Free Help in Home Decorating

With every suite of Cavalier bedroom and dining room furniture is furnished a plan, worked out by a famous interior decorator, for decorating your room in complete harmony.

Even though you do not want new furniture, we invite you to view the exhibit of room plans in our store, including the Richmond dining room plan in full color, in six different color schemes. You may get new ideas for arranging your present furnishings so that you will have a more beautiful home.

The Richmond Cavalier Dining Room Suite, No. 620, shown above, comes in walnut or brown mahogany, with English antique hardware. On display now in our store. Many other Cavalier suites to choose from.

SHORT CUTS IN STATE NEWS

The Latest News From All Over the State

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

Danville—Dan Haley, of Lynchburg, orator at the Flag Day exercises held here under the auspices of the Danville Lodge of Elks before leaving for his home, reiterated that he is a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia.

Graham.—B. C. Neel, of the county police, was shot and probably mortally wounded while raiding at Tip Top, with a party of officers looking for liquor cars, and Will Brown, farmer, on whose premises the shooting took place, is confined in the Pulaski county jail charged with the shooting.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Edward P. Shelley, of this city, has been elected an honorary member of the Harmonian Literary Society of Emory and Henry College. He recently made an address before the student body. Mr. Shelley's father, the late Rev. Robert S. Shelley, was a student at Emory and Henry.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Bruce Anderson, Campbell county farm demonstration agent, is conducting a series of experiments in that county for the combating of the damage done in an alarming way by insects and fungi disease, the work being the use of a combination of nicotine and lime, as has been used successfully in California.

* * *

Lynchburg.—A king snake, thirty inches in length, with two heads, one at either end, and with an ability to use either head forward, was killed on the farm of R. W. Massie, near Lone Jack, by C. C. Lesner, who came to Lynchburg to report the curiosity. Mr. Lesner says he observed the snake to five other men, all of whom are ready to verify his story.

* * *

Berryville.—Twenty-five signatures, some acknowledged by payment of dues for the first year, were secured to an agreement to become members of the newly formed Berryville Chamber of Commerce at a meeting at the courthouse here, and the objective of fifty additional members, or a total of seventy-five, was set to be reached before next June 1.

* * *

Norfolk.—The value to commerce and industry, particularly in Virginia and in the territory of which Norfolk is center, of the antipollution legislation recently enacted by Congress was stressed by W. McDonald Smith, U. S. Fish and Game Commissioner, speaking to the Monday Club here. Commissioner Lee also spoke of the regulations of this department for the protection and conservation of the wild life, particularly of birds.

* * *

Fredericksburg.—A. P. Grymes, of New York, has purchased Sadie's Nest farm, in King George county, from Marshall P. Grymes. The farm, which is located near Chatterton, contains 134 acres overlooking the Potomac River, and has a frame dwelling of thirteen rooms. The purchase price was $6,500. Sadie's Nest has been in the Grymes family for 127 years, Mr. J. Grymes, a native of King George county, is now a prominent business man in New York.

* * *

Salem.—Charles Zirkle, 40, who has been missing from his home on Back Creek, in Roanoke county, for about two weeks, was found dead. He was lying across his mother's grave in the Zirkle family burying ground at Caves Springs, five miles out of Salem. The county coroner and sheriff were called to view the body, which was found in a bad state of decomposition. A pistol lying at the side of the dead man's head and a bullet hole in the right temple told the story of suicide.

* * *

Danville.—The managers of German carp and suckers in Dan River at Schoolfield last Saturday netted the State treasury $718.03 in fines imposed on seven men who pleaded guilty. They were specifically charged with selling fish "with sticks and snarehooks." About fifteen defendants were not tried either through failing to appear or because they wished witnesses to be present to show that the fish dodged when they struck at them and that blood was not on their hands. Mayor Wooding fined each man tried the maximum amount under the special act of the Legislature, which protects Dan River fish during the spawning season. The open season began Monday.

* * *

Culpeper.—Jerry Yates, 63, a prominent farmer living near Culpeper, and his farm assistant, Simon Nash, 16, died en route to a hospital in Charlottesville from injuries received when their automobile turned turtle on the highway near Crooked Run. Both men were pinned underneath the car. They were rushed to Culpeper for medical aid and thence to the hospital. The bodies were brought back to Culpeper on a Southern Railway train and the double funeral was held from Calvary Episcopal Church.

* * *

Roanoke.—Six hundred and twenty-three gallons of whiskey and 19,444 gallons of beer were seized and destroyed in May by Federal prohibition agents, operating out of Roanoke, according to the monthly report of J. C. Brown, in charge of the local enforcement office. Twenty complete stills and nineteen partial outfits were also captured and destroyed. Raiding was carried on in five counties adjacent to or near to Roanoke county.

ARMAND.—With an enthusiastic appreciation of $100 in order to insure Hanover county having an individual booth at the Southern Exposition to be held in New York City January 19 to 31, 1925, the Hanover County Farmers' Union gave its support to the project as presented by Nelson Hughes, county president, of Atlee, and Joseph C. Stiles, county farm agent. The meeting was held in the No. 1 schoolhouse and farmers from all over the county were present.

* * *

Fredericksburg.—At a recent meeting of the Carolina School Board the matter of the Chesterfield High School, recently destroyed by fire, was brought up. The board decided to establish a standard elementary school on the site of the original building, and to place the high school at another location in Madison District, at a point convenient to a greater number of patrons. One half the cost of the new high school is to be paid for by the school board, the remaining part to be furnished by citizens of the district. The maximum to be furnished by the school board is $5,000.

* * *

Danville.—Preliminary summaries bearing on receipts and expenses of the city during the last fiscal year, which ended on April 30, have been completed by City Auditor R. P. Moss. The total expenditures during the fiscal year totaled $1,037,283.64. During the previous fiscal year the total expenditures were $1,137,348. The total receipts were slightly higher than in the year 1922-23, and totaled $1,040,169.68. The annual fiscal report will show that few departments exceeded their budgetary provision and that cancellations in other departments will virtually offset the excesses.

* * *

Winchester.—Struggling fiercely with his wife for possession of a razor, with which he already had hacked his throat several times, Basil Milburn, 38, a planet nurseryman, finally succeeded in overpowering Mrs. Milburn, wrenched the weapon from her hand, and slashed his throat three or four more times, dying in a few minutes at his home near here. County authorities, to whom Mrs. Milburn related her version of the tragedy as she lay almost prostrated on a bed, issued a certificate of suicide. Fear that he was losing his mind and voicing a horror of being sent to an insane asylum was ascribed as the reason for Milburn's slashing his throat, his wife told Sheriff Parsons. She said he had recently told her he intended to "end it all," but was undecided whether to cut his throat, use a pistol or take poison, as she said he told her he believed he had cancer on the brain.

* * *

Dinwiddie.—Ether injected hypodermically into the body of a 14-months-old infant at death's door with whooping cough, has given extraordinary benefit, results and, according to the parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Watkins, saved their child's life. The treatment was received in Europe in 1922 by an Italian who was subsequently probably for the first time in Virginia by Dr. S. Newman, who declines to discuss the case. The parents say that oxygen having failed, they and physicians had decided on a final effort, a chief feature of which was a paroxysm of coughing resulting in death by strangulation twenty drops of ether was injected

GOVERNOR FAVORS GREAT EXHIBIT

Confers With Head of Commerce Body on Plans

STATE WILL TAKE SPACE

Virginia Program For Southern Show Soon To Take Definite Form—For Permanent Exhibit.

Richmond.—

Plans for arranging a great Virginia exhibit for the Southern Exposition, to be held in New York City next February, are expected to take definite form within the next week or ten days, following a conference between Dr. Joseph L. Smith, of Petersburg, president of the State Chamber of Commerce, and Governor E. Lee Trinkle. Dr. Smith, who is chairman of the exposition committee in Virginia, has informed the Governor that this State must make known her requirements for space by June 1. The committee is anxious to have every section of the Old Dominion represented. Individuals who are interested are requested to communicate with the Chamber of Commerce in their community.

Virginia's great port, Hampton Roads, the Valley of Virginia, the Southwest, with its mines, and the manufacturing centers of Richmond and Petersburg, are all to be represented in the exhibit. J. Scott Parrish, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, is in charge of the preparatory work in this section and certain division leaders are: D. B. Ryland, business manager of the Lynchburg Chamber of Commerce; T. P. Thompson, secretary of the Norfolk Chamber, and W. M. Hiner, of the Petersburg Chamber of Commerce.

Governor Trinkle expressed his keen interest in the plans for the exposition. "I would like for Virginia to join with the other Southern States in maintaining a permanent exhibit in New York," he said, "and I hope that the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce will use its influence not only in having Virginia properly represented at the exposition next February, but in the establishment and maintenance of a permanent Southern exposition in New York."

To Mark Scenes Of Great Battles.

The commission named by Governor Trinkle on the placing of markers on the battlefields in Virginia is organized and will soon enter on its work. The bill creating the commission was passed at the session of the Legislature two years ago, and the women composing this have elected Mrs. W. W. Sale as chairman. The State has made an appropriation to the board having charge of the placing of markers on the battlefields around Richmond.

It was explained that the idea and purpose of the law was to have the markers of an artistic design, and to have them uniform for all the various points at which they will be placed.

It is expected that Mrs. Sale will call a meeting of the board at an early date. The following are members of the Commission: Mrs. Sale, Tuckahoe, chairman, representing the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities; Mrs. William Ruffin Cox, Richmond, representing the Colonial Dames; Mrs. W. C. N. Merchant, Chatham, representing the Daughter of 1812; Miss Anne Emmerson, Portsmouth, representing the Daughters of the American Revolution, and Mrs. H. F. Lewis, of Bristol, representing the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mabel Cody Flyers Return For Fair.

Mabel Cody, aerial performer of last year's Virginia State Fair, will appear this year in a repertoire of new and unusual flying acts, according to an announcement made by W. Conway Saunders, manager of the fair. Miss Cody was booked Tuesday. She left immediately with her manager for New York City, where she is filming "Shylock" for Pathe.

The contract calls for a number of performances of Miss Cody, "Flying Farmer McMillen," Miss Stinson, Lieutenant Barney Rowe and others. Miss Cody will change planes and do a number of other stunts at the 1924 State Fair.

REVIEW—REHOBOAM TO NEHEMIAH

GOLDEN TEXT—"Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people."—Prov. 14:34.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Selected Stories of the Quarter.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Main Events of the Quarter.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Chief Persons of the Quarter.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—From Rehoboam to Nehemiah.

Three methods of review are suggested:

I. Modern Application of the Outstanding Teachings of the Quarter's Lessons.

For adult classes qualified members may be asked a week ahead to present the teachings of the quarter along the following lines:

1. Patriotism. It should be pointed out how the nation suffered and was utterly ruined because of the lack of patriotism.

2. The need of real education. Because the people were not taught about God they went into idolatry. The real need of the nations of the world today is for more education.

3. Evils which affect society, such as the pernicious influence of gambling with the occult, necromancy, etc.

II. Biographical.

This method is always interesting and can be adapted to all grades. The general characteristics of the history of Israel and Judah appeared in this quarter's lessons, from Rehoboam, Jeroboam, Ahab, Elijah, Elisha, Amos, Hosea, Jehoiah, Hezekiah, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Nehemiah, etc. These can be assigned to different members of the class the previous week to present the outstanding lessons associated with each character.

III. The Summary Method.

This means pointing out the central teaching of each lesson. The following suggestions to that end are offered:

Lesson 1. The kingdom of glorious unity established in David's time reached its climax under Solomon, but because his heart was turned from God through the influence of his heathen wives God determined that the kingdom would be rent from him. Rehoboam's wicked stupidity in the matter was the cause of experienced men cause of the work of two generations to be undone in a moment.

Lesson 2. Elijah's struggle with Baal proves that the Lord is the true God and that He answers by fire. We respond when called upon in sincerity He alone is entitled to be worshiped.

Lesson 3. The proof that Elisha was chosen by God to succeed Elijah was not his anointing of the Spirit was discernible by the sons of the prophets and that he did similar things even greater works than Elijah.

Lesson 4. Those who give themselves up to the practice of sin will ultimately come to ruin. The wages of sin is death.

Lesson 5. Israel went into exile because of her sins, according to God's

VERA

The harvest is on with a rush—a great deal of wheat in this section has not been cut.

The heavy storm Sunday blew down and saturated cut wheat and mown grass that had not been hauled in, damaging both to some extent. On the other hand it was just what the farmers needed as the land had gotten so dry that they could not work their tobacco satisfactory.

We understand that the wireworms are ravishing the newly planted tobacco.

The road machine has been along and touched up the roads, somewhat; they are nothing to brag on at that.

We understand that the school wagon will be route from this section to Liberty Chapel this year, this is as it should be; as there has been no wagon on this route for several years, while other schools would have had this advantage. We were under the impression that Liberty Chapel was to have its full quota of teachers (four) this year, so far only two have been elected.

There is an abundance of cherries this year and they are dead ripe now, raspberries and huckleberries just beginning to ripen.

The lawn party at Vera, Saturday night, was a success, judging from the number of people from this section who attended.

The baptism at Ben Creek and the lecture at Appomattox by A. B. Dabney — both met with a watery reception—Jupiter Pluvius was "right on the job".

Workmen on Mr. Nuttlcombe's new bungalow had to quit work for want of material—the farmers are busy saving their crops they have no time to work at the saw mill now, consequently the builders have to suffer.

It is one sad duty to record the death of Mrs. Ella Powell Fillow. She was taken to a Lynchburg hospital where she died on the 21st. She leaves a husband and two small children. The community extends tenderest sympathy.

Mrs. "Buck" Trent has been quite sick—We trust she will soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Dabney Anderson motored to Six Mile Bridge, Sunday the 22nd, and spent the day with relatives.

Miss Lillian Peters of Danville, is visiting his daugeter, Mrs. J. S. Kinney.

S. T. Megginson Sr., Ben Megginson, Clarence and Bentsy Beale motored to Forest and spent the week-end with Mr. Megginson's daughter, Mrs. T. H. Marks, and family.

Robert Carner of Bedford, will leave about July 1st, for Spain, where he will teach English in the University of Madrid. He recently graduated from the University of Virginia, with M. A. degree and he specialized in romance languages while there; and will continue the study of Spanish at the University of Madrid. Mr. Carner has friends here where he has visited his mother, Mrs. Daisey Bell. He taught last year at the University and considering his age, 22 years, we feel his appointment to the University of Madrid is quite a "feather in his cap".

ROCKS NEWS

Farmers are busy planting tobacco.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Ranson, Miss Gertrude Ranson and D. W. Dinkins had a very enjoyable trip to Norfolk last week.

Robert Almond, Wylie Dickerson, Willie Hamilton and Herman Marsh of Lynchburg, are spending their vacation at home.

Mrs. Roy Moore and little son, and Mrs. Ned Almond and daughter, of W, Va., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Anderson.

J. N. Dickerson has purchased a new buster.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Garrett and children are visiting relatives in Norfolk and Richmond.

Miss Rosa Cawthorn and Mr. Buscome Price were married at the home of the bride Saturday. Mrs. George Thomas is ill.

FOREST VIEW

My! what hot weather.

Right much sickness about.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Shields and two sons, Junior and Bobbie, and Mrs. Ida Driskill motored from Birmingham, Alabama, and spent a few days in the home of R. W. Martin, they are now on a trip to relatives and friedds in Accomac Co., to spend a few days and then they will return to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Martin and two children, Dorothy and Purdum, motored from Yorktown, Va., last week and are on a visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin.

Mrs. L. Laughlin and little daughter, Hillas, have returned to their home in Lynchburg, after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Martin and children and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. Simms.

Mrs. J. A. Martin spent last Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wooldridge.

In Memoriam

In sad, but loving remembrance of my dear wife, Berta Anna Beale, who died two years ago May 22, 1922.

Two years have passed dear Berta since you left us, but you are not forgotten by those who loved you best; we cannot forget you dearest; God only knows our feelings since you have passed away. The day when thou didst leave us broke hearts did ache with pain; we hope someday to meet you where we shall never part again.

HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

Summer Hints for Young Mothers

Acute Indigestion

Is A Food Problem

It is hard on a child to suffer indigestion in summer.

Usually there is fever and vomiting, apt to be very prostrating.

One way to prevent such attacks is to see to it that the child does not eat heavily when overtired.

Often the trouble may be traced to improper food, which should be immediately changed.

As for treatment, do not forget that in indigestion, the organs have quit working and the bowel is full of undigested food.

Don't worry about the stomach—it will empty itself. But give a good cleansing treatment. Liv-o-lax will do the work thoroughly.

Then put the child on a very light diet for a few days.

You can get a good-sized bottle of Liv-o-lax at the drug store for 30c.

Lesson for June 6

THE BIRTH OF JESUS

LESSON TEXT—Luke 2:7-20.

GOLDEN TEXT—"For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord."—Luke 2:11.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Baby Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What the Shepherds and Angels Saw.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Greatest Event in the World's History.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Great Events Centered in the Birth of Jesus.

I. Jesus' Birth Foretold (Micah 5:2).

This prediction was made some 700 years before God sent the emperor to enforce the decree of taxation just in time to cause Mary to be at Bethlehem.

II. Jesus' Birth Announced to Mary and Joseph (Luke 1:30-38).

The mighty archangel Gabriel was sent by God to the little town of Nazareth to Mary, a Jewish maiden, who was betrothed to a carpenter of that village by the name of Joseph, solemnly announcing that she should give birth to a child who was to be named Jesus, should not be Joseph's son but should be the child of the Holy Ghost (Matt. 1:18-23). Later the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph, also, making the same announcement to him, and added that the child should be called Jesus, which means that Jehovah will save His people from their sins (Matt. 1:21).

III. The Prediction Fulfilled (v. 7).

This took place at a most propitious time. The Jews were under the power of the Romans. Not only did the birth of Christ come when all systems of religion and morality were tottering upon their foundations but at a time most suitable for the introduction of the Gospel. The whole world being under one rule made it possible for Christ's ministers to go from city to city and country to country unmolested. At the Almighty rules in the whole universe and is never behind in His arrangements.

The surroundings of Christ at His birth were in keeping with the rest. The Eternal God condescended to be in corporeal existence—to be born in a stable—becoming the poorest of the poor that we might be blessed by His unspeakable riches.

IV. Christ's Birth Announced (vv. 8-14).

1. By Whom? The first Gospel sermon was preached by an angel of the Lord. Thus we see that the exalted ministers of God were interested in men and had part in the announcement of God's plan of salvation.

2. To Whom? His birth was announced to the shepherds who were keeping watch over their flocks by night. The fact that the glorious Gospel message was first sounded forth to them shows that poverty is no barrier to its reception. God does not reveal Himself primarily to the princes and great men of the earth, but often passes over them to reveal Himself to the poor. (James 2:5).

3. The Nature of the Message. It was good tidings of great joy. It was good tidings because the darkness of heathenism had so long covered the earth, was beginning to vanish, the casting out of Satan, the prince of this world, was about to take place, liberty was soon to be proclaimed to those who were in bondage. The way of salvation was to be open to all. No longer was the knowledge of God to be confined to the Jews, but offered to the whole world. Glorious news this. So glorious that a multitude of the heavenly host accompanied this announcement with their song of praise. Thus we see that the first Gospel sermon was in the open air. The minister was the angel of God, the choir were the angels, the audience made up of humble shepherds.

V. The Shepherds Witnessing (vv. 15-20).

They did not stop to argue or raise questions, though these things were no doubt passing strange to them. They went immediately to Bethlehem, here they made an investigation and found everything just as represented. They had the privilege of first gazing upon the world's Savior, the very Lord of glory. They returned with rattitude in their hearts, praising God for all these wonderful things which he had revealed unto them.

VI. The Shepherds Witnessing (vv. 17-20).

They found things as announced, then they beheld the Lord of glory they could not remain silent. There were, they went back praising God for those who really hear the Gospel message cannot be silent. If they really hear they must tell it to others.

Our Needs

The needs for the present are more important to most people than the need and preparation for eternity.—The Living Word.

No Worth With God

Works of the flesh are of no worth with God, because the "flesh profiteth nothing."—The Living Word.

The Grace of God

The grace of God is not the basis of the blood.—The Living Word.

The Culinary Art

Movies at home! And you can make them yourselves. Some evening when mother lets you sit up late and you have lots of boys and girls in for a party, just turn out the lights and back of it put a strong light, big candles or a lamp will do if you haven't gas or electricity.

Now, divide the children into two groups, and let one side be the "audience" and the other the "movies." The sheet will be the back of the big light. They can make all sorts of funny motions or even make up a little play, and their shadows on the sheet will look like regular movies to the little audience out in front. After they have done all of their stunts let the "audience" and the "movies" change places while the others are amused. You can even invite the "grown-ups" to be the audience.

Sugar Soups for Little Chaps!

Here's a little dainty that's good to nibble when you want just a wee bite of something sweet. Sugar soups are so easy to make that I'm sure big sister would "a heap" like them for you. Ask her to make them this way!

1 cup butter.
2 cups sugar.
4 cups self-rising flour.
1 egg.

The mixture should be chilled before it is rolled out. Roll thin. The oven should be quick, but not too hot. Bake about ten minutes.

"Dainty Digits."

Do you remember in your Mother Goose Nursery Rhymes where are pictured the merry maids? Here are girls who can't be beaten at the game of pulling taffy. Taffy pulling is a good game to play. The boys line on one side and the girls on the other and the girl at the head of the line starts the taffy down the rows. The boy opposite her takes it and pulls it out into a pretty long piece and says, "I'm going a-milking, sir." Then he says, "May I go with your" and as they pull, "If you can catch me" and with that she is off like a shot. She runs around the line of girls and he runs around the line of boys. Then each one tries to get back between the rows. After she is caught they must take their places at the foot of the line and the next couple at the head start the game over again.

There are something like 7,042 Finger and you'll like them over so much because they look just like your own little fingers (That's what "digits" means). They are easy to make when this recipe is followed:

½ cup sugar
¾ cup butter
1 egg
½ cup milk
1 tsp. vanilla.
Self-rising flour.

Cream butter and sugar, add egg well beaten, milk, vanilla and enough self-rising flour. Mix well and toss on floured board. Roll about half inch in thickness and cut in strips about three inches long, roll in sugar and bake in hot oven 8 to 10 minutes.

If you expect to have a sale of anything, it would pay you to talk the matter over with
